

Summary Report

Mr. Satya Damaraju and Dr. Kantipudi MVV Prasad, carried out the quantum of under graduate project work in our Sreyas laboratories, and they premeditated in publishing/presenting this work in one of the reputed scopus indexed journals/conferences. As part of the process, they submitted the research article to the one of prestigious technical conference i.e. 2nd Smart Cities Symposium on 24th -26th March 2019 at Zain - eLearning Center, University Of Bahrain, Kingdom Of Bahrain and their work got an approval to be presented during the conference. This conference is approved by, The Institution of Engineering and Technology, UK and Proceedings will be submitted to the IET Digital Library - Elsevier's Scopus.

The symposium has been run for three days, where it was involved both invited speakers, in addition to academic submitted papers. The three days of the event started with the Keynote speakers following with the presentations of the Accepted papers in perspective rooms at Zain E-learning center. Several presentations were conducted on which “Multilayered Antenna Design with Smart City Applications” was presented with the detailed analysis on 26th March by Mr. Satya Damaraju and Dr. Kantipudi MVV Prasad and have successfully completed the presentation.

