The language labs are tailored to the individual needs of students. The Language Laboratory is effectively utilized by students as well as the faculty members for various self-enhancement and soft skill development activities. The students and faculty can watch videos, practice their language skills-pronunciation through a speech recognizer, learn new vocabulary, and much more.

CALL Lab-Computer Assisted Language Learning Lab- Students use the Walden Software as a platform to CALL lab to learn Phonetics, Intonation and other Accent forms. ICS Lab-Interactive Communication Skills Lab- Students participate in JAM session, Mock Interviews, Oral Presentation Skills, Debates, Group Discussion Activities and Role Plays.

(2014-15)

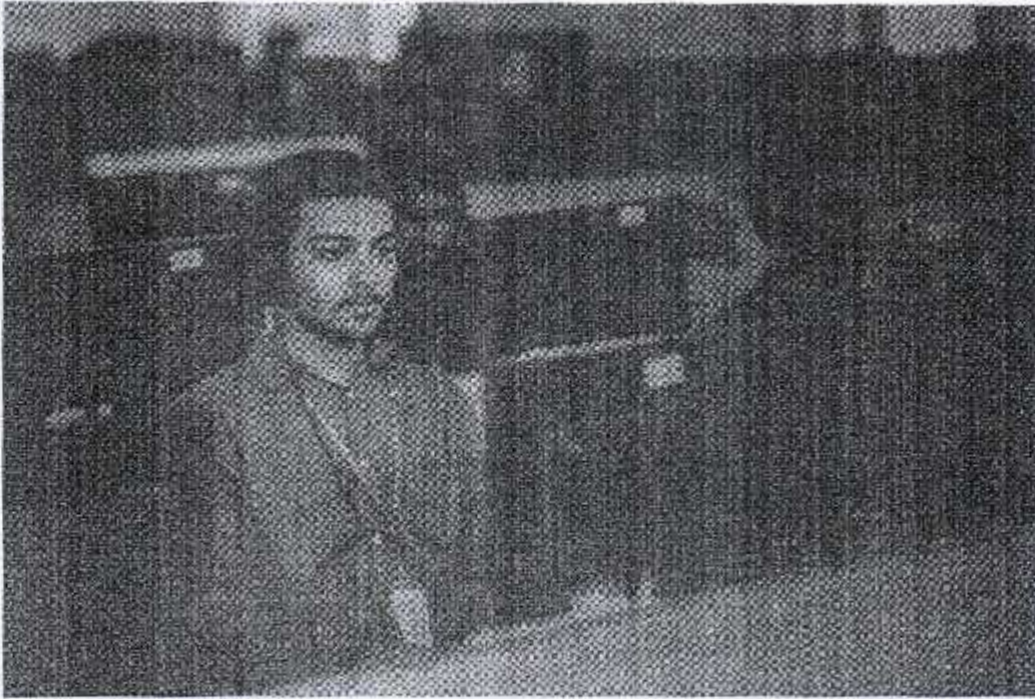

English is very important because it is widely spoken all around the world. Knowing English allows people to enjoy their life and work no matter where they are. For engineering students whose mother language is not English, mastering English is even more important; not only for their academic life but also for their prospective career and so is the principle objective of the course now.

The main objective of ELCS is to better understand the nuances of language through audio-visual experience and group activities. And also to improve the language proficiency of the students in English with emphasis on Listening and speaking skills. The lab helps the students to study academic subjects more effectively and develops the study skills and communication skills in formal and informal situations.

The important outcome of the ELCS Lab is that the students understand the importance of English in the present world and know the grammar rules and usage. The students get practice ethical attitudes besides having the responsibility towards society and develop an inquiry mind and seek knowledge.
